

Exceptional advising for construction businesses

Elevate HennepinSM 1:1 Construction Advising, starting November 2022

Free consulting from industry experts to help construction businesses grow

Powered by Hennepin County, Elevate HennepinSM 1:1 Construction Advising brings a deep pool of expert resources to help small and growing contractors innovate and grow.

With an intentional focus on serving diverse construction entrepreneurs, Elevate HennepinSM provide up to 25 hours of one-on-one specialized construction industry technical support with each advisor with each advisor. Available at no charge to all eligible contractors in Hennepin County, Construction Advising is designed with an intentional focus on serving contractors of color.

Elevate HennepinSM 1:1 Construction Advising

To help grow and diversify the Hennepin County construction industry

One-on-one advising

Eligible construction businesses may receive up to 25 hours of free one-on-one advising with construction business advisors with expertise in:

Business assessment and development

Construction project management

Construction law

Construction accounting

Safety plan preparation

Advisors include:

- Davis Law Office
- Envirotech Construction Services, Inc.
- MaKee Company, LLC.
- Raven Construction Inc.

To be eligible for Elevate HennepinSM 1:1 Construction Advising, contractors must:

- Be locally owned and operated in Hennepin County
- Have completed at least two projects with contracts totaling $25,000 or more
- Earn less than $18.25 million in annual revenue
- Be established and registered with the Minnesota Secretary of State prior to 2021 and be in good standing
- Register with Elevate HennepinSM

Learn more and apply

Complete a registration form to connect with one or more construction industry experts here: bit.ly/EHorgR.

Additional questions?

Contact Hennepin County's business resource navigator at economic.development@hennepin.us

Connect with business resources today
www.elevatehennepin.org

